MAINE HIGHWAY ATLAS READY FOR DISTRIBUTION

A new edition of the Maine General Highway Atlas is off the press and ready for distribution by the State Highway Commission. All principle roads have been updated since the last issue in 1964.

The 18 x 24 inch book contains 90 pages of maps covering all 16 counties. The number of sheets to cover a county varies from one for the smaller counties to as many as nine for Aroostook.

Individual county maps are done in large scale and show all public highways as well as features as private roads, homes, farms, rivers, lakes, mountains, airports, parks, and nearly 100 other details from bird sanctuaries to industrial plants.

Included in the atlas are hundreds of large scale maps of congested areas where buildings are too close together to fit on the standard size county sheet.

The 1968 Maine General Highway Atlas can be obtained from the State Highway Commission in Augusta at a cost of $5.00 each.

colleges where you plan to apply.
Recommended College Board Test Dates for

College-Bound Juniors:
All juniors planning to attend college or vocational institutes should try to take the Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude Test (PSAT) on October 26. In addition, most college-bound juniors take the Scholastic Aptitude Test (SAT) in March and the Achievement Tests (ACT) in May. It is important to note, however, that not all colleges, especially Junior Colleges and Technical Institutes, require the College Board Achievement Tests for admission. Up-to-date college catalogs are the most accurate sources of information about which tests are required for admission.

Further details about these tests will be distributed by the Guidance Department during the school year. Consult the counselor if you desire further information.

GREENWOOD CITY

— Mrs. Cellista Morgan, Cor. —
The following poem "The Greenwood Church" found among grandmother's papers was written many years ago by whom, I don't know. Because I was asked to have it printed I do so in memory of Linnie Cole who left us on Sept. 18, 1966 and to those who still remember once taking part in the services there. Although this little church no longer exists it gave to many, ideals of life and love that made their homes a place of strength and beauty. It enriched them with lessons of life and guided their footsteps. It sanctified marriages and blessed homes. This blessed little church showed hope of another morning when the heart was seamed with sorrow.

The Greenwood Church is forsaken and old,
Its pews are deserted and bare,
Hushed are the notes that the organ once rolled,

And the voices once lifted in prayer,
Abandoned for churches more costly and tall,
And walls of more beauty and grace,

It seems to be silently brooding o'er all,
The memories that haunted that place,
Though dear to the hearts of the few who are left,

It stands there, forsaken, alone;
The floors have fallen in dust and decay
And the windows are broken and gone,

The friendships so sweet
And the faces that smiled,
And the hymns that arose to God's throne,
Have all passed away in dust and decay,

Like the church, here in Greenwood, alone.
